SUMMER HOLIDAYS

Out of difficulties grow miracles. Tough time don't last.

Dear Students

The beginning of new session might not have been with pomp and show, but the spirit of teaching learning continues in the school. The summer vacations this time would not be ice creams, candies and cool pool, but time can be utilized in honing skills and interests.

It is easy to bloom, then to be a bud, but you are responsible young members of the nation and it's our duty to follow rules.

Things to be remember:

- ❖ Drink plenty of juice and water to avoid dehydration.
- ❖ Make hand washing and hygiene a part of your routine.
- ❖ Holiday Homework is a part of subject enrichment and will be assessed on the basis of creativity and efforts of the students.
- ❖ It's the perfect time to enhance your speaking skills and vocabulary by conversing in English with your family and siblings.
- ❖ Reading is essential for those who seek to rise above the ordinary.
- ❖ A beautiful handwriting makes a good impression. Practice one page of English and Hindi handwriting daily.
- ❖ Schedule your time for activities so that there is no piling up for the last moment.

3. My Elder Brother

WORKSHEET

1

COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Papa had to go to Lucknow. So Mummy was alone at home. Not really alone, because my brother, Rahul, and my sister, Rajni, and I were at home. But Papa was worried because, according to him, we were children and only Mummy was sensible. Papa's name was Ramesh and Mummy's was Sujata, but our neighbours called them Mr and Mrs Pathak.

My name is Rohit and I am six years old. I even go to school, so I know a lot of things. I see things on the TV and read books, so that is why I know Papa was worried. He told Mummy to be careful, to lock all the doors firmly, to keep a torch near her at night and also the phone. He also told her to take good care of all of us. I thought this was a lot of work for Mummy. Rahul was busy with his friends and his homework. Rajni was just a baby. So I decided to help.

At night, I went around the house with Mummy to check that all the windows and doors were locked. There was a stick to hold up a plant on the balcony. I quietly hid that under my bed, just in case I had to catch a thief or someone at night. We had dinner. Mummy told us a lovely story about a man called Alibaba. Then we all fell asleep.

I did not know what woke me up. Perhaps it was the moonlight shining through the window. However, as I awoke, I heard soft sounds of someone near the stairs inside the house! I could feel my heart beating faster. My mouth was dry. Then I remembered the stick. I got up quietly and picked it up. Rahul was fast asleep and didn't wake up when I whispered his name. Holding the stick, and with a fast-beating heart, I tiptoed out of the room towards the stairs. As I reached it, I saw something white. Then all of a sudden, a lot of things happened. I hit at the white thing with all my might. It streaked past me to the ventilator near the landing on the stairs, knocking me down. I screamed. The lights came on. Mummy and Rahul came running. Rajni was yelling somewhere. I slid and bumped down the steps to the landing. I had twisted my ankle. And all the commotion was because of our neighbour's cat!

A Answer the following questions.

1. Where was Rohit's father going?

2. What were Rohit's parents called by the neighbours?

4. The Return of the Lion

1

COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Our neighbour, Mr Dikshit, is a kind old man who always has a smile and a good word for everyone. We all love him. But Mr Dikshit has a problem. He is extremely forgetful

And Mrs Dikshit is always anxious about what he will forget next. Mr Dikshit could forget anything, anywhere!

We know all about it because every time he forgot things, all the children in the neighbourhood were called in to search for the missing things. It was like a great Treasure Hunt! Last Tuesday, we were called to search for his glasses. We turned the house inside out and finally found them in the refrigerator! The lost car keys led us a merry dance. We searched in all the unlikely places too, till it was discovered in the tray in which Mrs Dikshit kept onions. It was a mystery how they reached there! His wallet and mobile phone were known to all the neighbours and shopkeepers. They brought them back to Mrs Dikshit whenever they were left at someone's house or shop. He even left his car at the railway station and took a taxi home. His son had to fetch the car later.

But yesterday was the worst so far. He forgot Mrs Dikshit at the Mall! And she could not pay for her purchases or call him because he went off with her purse. She walked home in a rage and we heard her yelling at him. Ten minutes later, Mr Dikshit came out smiling happily at all of us!

A Answer the following questions.

1. What was Mr Dikshit's problem?

2. What was like a great Treasure Hunt?

3. Where were Mr Dikshit's glasses found?
